Introit: Psalm 81: 1-10

P: Sing for joy to God our strength; shout aloud to the God of Jacob! C: Begin the music, strike the tambourine, play the melodious harp and lyre.

P: Sound the ram's horn at the New Moon, and when the moon is full, on the day of our Feast; C: This is a decree for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

P: He established it as a statute for Joseph when He went out against Egypt, where we heard a language we did not understand. C: He says, "I removed the burden from their shoulders; their hands were set free from the basket.

P: In your distress you called and I rescued you, I answered you out of a thundercloud; I tested you at the waters of Meribah. C: Hear, O my people, and I will warn you- if you would but listen to me, O Israel!

P: You shall have no foreign god among you; you shall not bow down to an alien god. C: I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt. Open wide your mouth and I will fill it.

(Proper Preface)

P: It is good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; for what had been hidden from before the foundation of the world You have made known to the nations in Your Son. In Him, being found in the substance of our mortal nature, You have manifested the fullness of Your glory. Therefore with angels and arch-angels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and singing:

WHAT THE SCRIPTURES TEACH CONCERNING THE LORD'S SUPPER

In I Corinthians 11 the Holy Spirit led Paul to write, "This is my body" and "This cup is the new covenant in my blood" to explain the spiritual truth of the Supper: Christ is truly present in His body and blood in the bread and wine. This is a mystery, a Heavenly gift; one we can only understand in faith. Paul further says, "Therefore whoever eats the bread and drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord" and, "let a man examine himself...for he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself if he does not judge the body rightly." There is no doubt from our Lord's Word, we are receiving His body and blood. The Father offers us forgiveness, unity of faith, strengthening of faith, etc.; it is never our right, we approach His altar only by His invitation. If you are visiting we ask that you please speak with the Pastor before receiving the Lord's Supper. We strive to lovingly carry out our responsibility to ensure the supper remains a blessing for all, never a curse. May His richest blessing be upon you all.
